BIOGRAPHY

Originally from Oklahoma, Dr. Sara Suttle moved to Texas as young a child in 1989. Upon graduating high school, Dr. Suttle enlisted in the United States Air Force Reserve where she was trained as a surgical technician, providing her with invaluable experience during her collegiate and medical training. The U.S. Air Force took her to San Antonio, TX where she studied at the University of Texas at San Antonio. There she graduated cum laude with a Bachelors of Science in Biology. After completing her undergraduate work and finishing her career in the military, she attended the Scholl College of Podiatric Medicine in North Chicago, IL on an academic scholarship and obtained her Doctor of Podiatric Medicine degree. Sara then completed a three-year surgical residency at Kingwood Medical Center in Kingwood, TX where she served as Chief Resident during her final year.
